

chairman of the inland revenue board. A resolution concerning mines was passed, and the general discussion of the budget

Murder and Suicide.
St. Louis, April 11.—Howard Eshols, a mulatto was found dead in a room occupied by Jennie Harris (colored), who is believed three minutes lost by the woman and twice, and the wounds on each correspond with the empty shells. The woman will die.

Incendiary Fires in Vienna.
VIENNA, April 11.—Incendiary fires continue here, but owing to the extraordinary precautions of the authorities, little damage has been done so far. The are attributed to Anarchists, but it is believed many of them are set with a view to robbery during the excitement. A similar case of failure is reported at Linzfeld in Upper Austria.

To Stop Drilling for Oil.
PITTSBURG, April 11.—The leading oil producers of the southwest are preparing for a general suspension of drilling operations in the south, to bring about an advance in prices.

Attorney John K. Porter Dead.
W. AUSTIN, April 11.—Attorney John K. Porter, 65 years of age, died at his home here this morning.

Porter, senior counsel for the people in the trial of Garfield's assassin, Guiteau, and for the defense in the Beecher trial, died this morning.

---

MEMPHIS RACES.

Tom Elliott Wins the Tennessee Derby.

The Time Was 2:03 1/2.—There Were Five Starters.—The Day Was Cold, but the Crowd Quite Large.

MEMPHIS, April 11.—Three thousand people braved the cold, damp atmosphere and sat through five events of the opening day of the spring meeting of the new Memphis Jockey club. Considering the condition of the track the sport was good. The event of the day—the Tennessee Derby—was won by J. M. Brown's bay colt Tom Elliott, Luke Blackburn, in 2:08 1/4, distance and one-eighth miles. Starters: J. Murphy, 125, (R. Williams); Tom Elliott, 115, (Britton); Lew Weir, 122, (De Long); Little Billy, 118, (Haggett); Phil Dwyer, 122, (Overton).

trained. Little Billy and Tom Elliott were apparently in the pink condition. J. Murphy came out last and showed up well. As the horn sounded the odds were: J. Murphy 8 to 1, Tom Elliott 10 to 1, Billy 10 to 1.

Tom Elliott led Jim Murphy at the start by a nose, with Little Billy a close third. At the stand Little Billy passed both Elliott and Murphy and Corrigan's horses were now better than when they they started. At the quarter, Elliott the Billy led by half a length. Dwyer then made a spurt and put Murphy in fourth place, while Weir brought up the rear, at the half, where positions were unchanged, excepting Billy increased his lead and was three-quarters of a length ahead of Elliott. Weir's jockey brought his horse to second place and pressed Billy hard. At the three-quarter post, Elliott made third Dwyer fourth.

was third, Dwyer fourth and the Irish horse two lengths in the rear. In the home-stretch Billy led by half a length. Weir crowding him hard, Elliott an effort to pass him, Button gave Elliott the whip and passed Weir and was even with Billy in the twinkling. Another similar movement and all was over. Elliott seemed to go fast near the end of the journey and passed under the wire one length ahead of Billy.

Other events. Six furlongs—Helen Skelter won, American Lady second, Critic third. Time—1:19½.

Seven furlongs—Bollivar won, Buck second, Penn P. third, Gray Goose fourth. Time—1:30.

Mrs. Langtry Has an Experience.
[Special to THE HERALD-Examiner Club]
LONDON, April 11.—Mrs. Lily Langtry visited the Empire Music hall with a party of friends Thursday night. While the number of young swells endeavored to force themselves into her presence, the result was that Mrs. Langtry's friend flung the intruders out into the water.

Then the dudes showed fight and the pe had to be called.

Mrs. Langtry's projected Spanish with a member of the Peel family has been abandoned. Mr. Peel's relatives thought it injudicious for the young man to undertake the journey with Mrs. Lang especially in view of the fact of the breaking off a marital engagement on such short notice.

Langtry. While Mrs. Langtry was in Paris, it is said, she was a good poster for the attention of a young Indian prince, who asked her to accompany him to theatres, fish balls and so forth. An attaché of the British embassy at Pondicherry also endeavored to court her society.

pacified him by taking breakfast with at a swell restaurant, and then, it is advised him to return to his duty and c vate diplomacy as she intended to de herself henceforth to histrionic art on

Hungarian Villages Burned.
VIENNA, April 11.—Ten villages in Hungary have been burned. The spread of flames was assisted by dry and warm weather. Large stores of corn and wheat are being burned.

head of cattle were burned. Five persons were killed and thousands are homeless. Leonfelden is almost totally destroyed.
A fire, one hundred barns and other buildings were burning at the same time. One person was killed and several injured. A fire is also raging in Moravia.

A chest of dynamite cartridges stolen at Scheibbs, Lower Austria, to England Not Scheming for San Juan

London, April 11.—J. W. Lowder, parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, replying to a question in the commons declared that the statement that Eugenio Caceres was scheming to secure the harbor of San Quentin, Lower California, as a coaling station under the cloak of the Mexican International Navigation Company, was unfounded.

The Revolution in Venezuela.
New York, April 11.—The Herald's

est, Crespo has re-appeared at the head